Professional Storytelling

We're a professional couple with an education & experience in TV News Production & Human Resources. Tony is a TV Camera Operator & Editor with CityNews in Toronto. Petula works in HR which means she is great at interviewing and dealing with people. By working with us you get the technical, creative and people skills to tell your story to our audience.

We promote and share your story through our Blog, 4 Social Media Accounts and YouTube Channel. The videos we produce are truly unique because we combine casual interviews and different point-of-view (POV) shots to make our viewers feel like they are actually participating in the activities with us. We hope you find our videos fun and entertaining!
